Magic Marker

Illamasqua's Precision Ink flesh-toned liquid liner, $28, is a genius brightener for tired eyes. Line your inside rims with it for a fresh, wide-awake effect that doesn't scream "made-up."

TRUE ROMANCE

Not usually a sap, I'm charmed by the new Ralph Lauren Romance campaign starring polo heartthrob Nacho Figueras and his (equally gorgeous) wife, Delfi Blaquier. See a candid behind-the-scenes clip and win a bottle, $78, at marieclaire.com/romanceperfume.

Bright Ideas

I'm obsessed with the poppy, twist-on-primary-colors Weekender Pencils by Mary Kay, $14 each. The creamy formula glides on effortlessly for day (layer Coral Stone over lip balm; apply Turquoise Waters as eyeliner), then can be intensified for a no-brainer p.m. transition.

LOVE IT, NEED IT

Weekend getaway or 10-day haul, I avoid checking bags at all costs (blame a luggage snafu at Heathrow). It's why I won't leave home without... Cargo Voyages Water-Resistant Collection, $25: Bronzer and a mini mascara help you hit the tarmac looking rested. Japonesque Beauty Fixation swabs, $5 a set: They're preloaded with tinted balms or makeup or polish removers, nixing the need for clunky bottles. Dr. Dennis Gross Skincare Alpha Beta Glow Pads, $32 for 20: Exfoliation, hydration, and a subtle glow in single-serve packs.

HELLO, SUN-DRIED LINENS! SLATKIN & CO.

FRESH COTTON CANDLE, $20, IS EXACTLY

HOW I WISH ALL MY LAUNDRY WOULD SMELL.

About a Boy

Like Chanel's classic quilted bag, the new Rouge Coco Shine lipsticks, $32, somehow work for everyone. My fave: Boy (named for Coco's beloved Arthur "Boy" Capel), a rosy nude that imparts a satiny hint of color.

TIP-TOPS

No wonder the first lady is such a fan of designer Jason Wu: He has an impeccable eye for color—as evidenced in this collection of superb nail polishes he designed for CND. $47 for a set of five.
