YOU GLAD IT'S SANDAL SEASON?

There's nothing demure about this summer's most popular nail color. Unabashedly vivid, tangerine lacquer is to summer as red is to winter: It's classic, sexy and flattening on everyone (once you work up the chutzpah to wear it!). The best hues from which to choose:

- 1 | DIOR VERNIS ELECTRIC TROPICS NAIL DUO IN ALOILA ($26; includes a top coat; dior.com)
- 2 | OPI 'ALL COME BACK YA HEAR?' ($8; opi.com for stores)
- 3 | SONIA KASHUK TUTTI FRUTTI ($5; target.com)
- 4 | ESSIE TOO TOO HOT ($8; essie.com)
- 5 | ESSIE MEET ME AT SUNSET ($8; essie.com)

/Self-Tanner / GIVE YOURSELF AN UPGRADE

The new faux-glow options are multitaskers. Perricone MD No Sun Tanner ($65; perriconemd.com) deepens tone while firming skin and delivering vitamin D. Dr. Dennis Gross Skincare Alpha Beta Glow Pads ($32; dgskincare.com) also deposits some D, plus alpha-hydroxy acids to slough off dead skin and create a streak-free tan. And Completely Bare Spas (completelybare.com), with outlets nationwide, offers a spray tan in which the bronzer is laced with a hair-growth inhibitor. The result: a fuzz-free fake bake.

SET YOUR IPHONE ALARM

❖ Clothes and cars go on sale. Beauty items? Almost never. But from July 15 to 31, dozens of brands will offer value sets for Nordstrom's anniversary sale. Topping our list: Clarins beauty kit ($30; nordstrom.com), created with FEED Projects (feedprojects.com). A $43.75 value, the set consists of a FEED bag and three travel-size products. Plus, the purchase funds 15 school lunches (part of the United Nations World Food Programme).

JOHN FRIEDA FOR CONAIR STRAIGHTENING IRON
($50; DRUGSTORES)

This affordable iron smooths unruly hair as well as any pricey iron (we gave it a go). Plus, its ionic technology flattens frizz—and continues to fight it all day.

↓
LIVING PROOF STRAIGHT
($29; SEPHORA.COM)

Gets hair smooth sans silicones (which can make fine hair greasy). Bonus: Thanks to a dirt-repelling compound in the spray, you can wash (and dry) less often.

↓
TOPSTYLER
($119; TOPSTYLER.COM)

The easy-to-use heated clips wrap around pin curls, creating beachy waves that, according to the company, last three times as long as those made with a standard curling iron.
